TITLE IX POLICIES AND PROCEDURES: SEX-BASED DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT MANUAL

2023-2024

TITLE IX POLICIES AND PROCEDURES: SEX-BASED DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Prohibition of Discrimination on the Basis of Sex

AcadeMir Charter Schools, Inc. is committed to providing a working and learning environment that is free from discrimination based on sex (which includes sexual harassment). Given this, the AcadeMir Charter Schools does not discriminate on the basis of sex in any of its education programs or activities. The AcadeMir Charter Schools organization is required by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (“Title IX”) and its regulations not to discriminate in such a manner.

Title IX’s requirement not to discriminate in any of the AcadeMir Charter School’s education programs or activities extends to admission and employment. Inquiries about the application of Title IX and its regulations to the organization may be referred to the AcadeMir Charter School’s Title IX Coordinator, the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights of the United States Department of Education, or both:

The AcadeMir Charter Schools is committed to fostering an environment free from discrimination on the basis of sex. To the extent that any AcadeMir Charter School policy or procedure regarding discrimination or harassment on the basis of sex (as defined by Title IX) conflicts with Title IX or its regulations, Title IX and its regulations will control.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972

Title IX is a federal law that states: "No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance." The U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights (OCR) enforces Title IX.

The AcadeMir Charter Schools policies and procedures for addressing reports and complaints of sex-based discrimination (including sexual harassment) are intended to comply with Title IX and its regulations. To the extent that they conflict with Title IX or its regulations, Title IX and its regulations will control.

Title IX Coordinator

Who is the Title IX Coordinator?

The AcadeMir Charter Schools, Inc. has appointed a Title IX Coordinator to coordinate the Organization's efforts to comply with its responsibilities under Title IX and its regulations. The Title IX Coordinator's name and contact information are as follows:

Sexual Harassment Under Title IX

What is sexual harassment?

Title IX defines sexual harassment as conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- An AcadeMir Charter School employee conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the District on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct;
- Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the Ac education program or activity; or
- Sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking (see the Definitions section, below, for an explanation of these terms).

Definitions

1. Complainant is defined as an individual (employee, student, Vendors, applicant, or other third parties attempting to participate in an education program or activity under the substantial control of the AcadeMir Charter Schools Governing Board) who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment. Parents and guardians who have a legal right to act on behalf of students may do so, including by filing a formal Complaint. A third party, including a parent or guardian, who makes a report of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment on behalf of another individual does not become a Complainant.

2. Respondent is defined as an individual who has been alleged to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

3. Recipient refers to elementary and secondary schools, that are recipients of Federal financial assistance. For purpose of Title IX sexual harassment regulations, the U.S. Department of Education uses the phrase “elementary and secondary schools” interchangeably with “local educational agencies” (or “LEAs” or “K-12”).

4. Sexual Harassment is defined as conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following definitions:

- a) Quid pro quo is when an employee of the recipient conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the recipient on an individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct;
- b) Unwelcome conduct is conduct determined by reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the recipient’s education program or activity; or
- c) “Sexual assault” as defined by 20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(6)(A)(v) (“Clery Act”) is an offense classified as a forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; “Dating violence,” as defined by 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10) is violence committed by a person who is or who has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the Complainant.

How does AcadeMir Charter Schools respond to reports of sexual harassment?

All students and employees are encouraged to report sexual harassment to the school principal and/or supervisor. In addition can also submit a complaint to the assigned Title IX coordinator at AcadeMir Charter Schools. Upon receiving a report of sexual harassment in an education program or activity, the Title IX Coordinator will contact the complainant (the individual alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment) to discuss the availability of supportive measures* and explain the process for filing a formal complaint of sexual harassment

AcadeMir Charter Schools, Inc. reserves the right to remove a respondent (the alleged perpetrator of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment) from its education program or activity on an emergency basis, subject to the requirements of Title IX and its regulations.

Notably, the respondent also has an equal right to supportive measures throughout the report and complaint process.*

Student/Parent Complaints

For student Related Complaints all AcadeMir Charter Schools will follow and utilize the Miami Dade County Public Schools Title IX policies and procedures with the understanding that all students Attending AcadeMir Charter Schools is a student with Miami-Dade Public School System which requires the provision of a Student Handbook. Parents and students are required to read the Student Handbook. The Code of Student Handbook details the responsibilities that staff members, students, and parents are expected to fulfill.

AcadeMir Charter Schools, Inc. has adopted, and will abide by the MDCPS Code of Student Conduct. A copy of the MDCPS Student Code of Conduct can be found at: <https://codeofconduct.dadeschools.net/#!/fullWidth/5866>

Further, it is the expectation of AcadeMir Charter School's is to follow applicable M-DCPS Title IX Sexual Harassment Manual procedures to ensure that all necessary evidence has been gathered for Decision-Makers utilizing the definitions contained within the Title IX Sexual Harassment Manual and applicable MDCPS School Board Policies to render a decision based on the information contained in the investigative report.

Please click on the link to Access the MDCPS Title IX Procedures Related to Reports of Sexual Harassment

Steps for Employees Who Receive a Report of Sexual Harassment

1. Ensure the safety and well-being of the Complainant.
2. If there is an emergency, call 911.
3. If you suspect child abuse or neglect, immediately call the Florida Department of Children and Families (DCF) Abuse Hotline at 1-800-96ABUSE (1-800-962-2873) or submit a report online at <https://reportabuse.dcf.state.fl.us/Child/ChildForm.aspx>
4. Notify the Principal or Work Site Supervisor to file your complaint. If you have submitted a report that has been made to the Title IX Coordinator if you have not made the report the report directly to them. Title IX Coordinator will work directly with the school If the report involves an allegation of sexual harassment by an adult against a student or indicates allegations of a Level 3 or higher under the Code of Student Conduct, at which point the team will notify Miami Dade Police Department at (305)715-3300.
5. Notify the M-DCPS Charter School Support office to obtain support as is relates to district and state reporting.

Supportive Measures Offered to the Complainant and Respondent, As Needed, to Ensure Equal Access to the Educational Program or Activity

Supportive measures should also be offered to the Respondent if they are necessary to ensure equity in access to education programs or activities. While a recipient is not obligated in every situation to offer supportive measures to a Respondent, if refusing to offer supportive measures to a Respondent (for instance, where a required proceeding under the MDCPS Manual falls on a Respondent's final examination date results in a Respondent needing to reschedule the proceeding) would be clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances, such a refusal could also violate Title IX.

Supportive measures will be:

- Non-disciplinary, non-punitive
- Individualized
- Meant to restore or preserve equal access to educational programs and activities
- Implemented without unreasonably burdening the other party
- Designed to protect safety of parties or environment or deter sexual harassment
- Confidential to the extent that maintaining confidentiality would not impair the ability to provide the supportive measures

Supportive measures include, but are not limited to:

- Counseling
- Academic support, such as extensions of time or other course-related adjustments
- School campus escort services
- Safety plan
- Class schedule modifications
- Transportation accommodations
- Restrictions on contact between the parties
- School transfers
- Curriculum lessons that contain information about sexual harassment and bullying
- Referrals to outside support agencies

What is a formal complaint of sexual harassment?

Either a complainant or the Title IX Coordinator can file a formal complaint alleging sexual harassment against a respondent. To qualify as a formal complaint, the document must be filed by a complainant (a document or electronic submission that contains the complainant's physical or digital signature, or otherwise indicates that the complainant is the person filing the formal complaint) or signed by the Title IX

Coordinator. The document must allege sexual harassment against a respondent and request that AcadeMir investigates the allegation of sexual harassment.

At the time of filing a formal complaint, a complainant must be participating in or attempting to participate in the AcadeMir Charter Schools education program or activity.

How does AcadeMir Charter Schools respond to formal complaints of sexual harassment?

Formal complaints of sexual harassment trigger the grievance process prescribed by Title IX and its regulations. The grievance process for formal complaints of sexual harassment and complaints including allegations of sexual harassment is set forth below.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

AcadeMir Charter Schools has two sets of grievance procedures for processing complaints of sex-based discrimination:

- 1. Grievance Procedure for Complaints of Discrimination on the Basis of Sex that Do Not Include an Allegation of Sexual Harassment

The District will process complaints of discrimination on the basis of sex that do not include an allegation of sexual harassment under its standard investigation policies and procedures.

- 2. Grievance Procedure for Formal Complaints of Sexual Harassment and Complaints including Allegations of Sexual Harassment

Formal complaints of sexual harassment and complaints including allegations of sexual harassment trigger a unique grievance process, described below.

Both of these grievance procedures provide for the prompt and equitable resolution of student and employee complaints alleging discrimination on the basis of sex, including sexual harassment.

How to File a Complaint of Discrimination on the Basis of Sex (including Sexual Harassment)

AcadeMir Charter Schools has established a number of methods for filing complaints of discrimination on the basis of sex (including sexual harassment). They include:

- Filing a complaint online (Click the Link)
- Completing a paper complaint form, which is available in your school's counseling office, or speaking to any Administrator
- Contacting the Title IX Coordinator by any of the means set forth above.

Students and employee may also contact the U.S. Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights to report discrimination by writing a letter or filing a complaint form available at: <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/docs/howto.html?src=rt>

Is my formal complaint of sexual harassment subject to this grievance process?

Formal complaints of sexual harassment and formal complaints including allegations of sexual harassment trigger a unique grievance process required by Title IX and its regulations.

However, under certain circumstances, a formal complaint of sexual harassment may not be subject to the jurisdiction of Title IX and this grievance procedure. A formal complaint must be dismissed for purposes of sexual harassment under Title IX and its regulations if:

- The conduct would not constitute sexual harassment as defined in the Title IX regulations even if proved;
- The conduct did not occur in the School's education program or activity (as that term is defined by the Title IX regulations); or
- The conduct did not occur against a person in the United States.

Dismissing a formal complaint of sexual harassment for any of these reasons does not preclude action under another of the School's policies prohibiting misconduct.

AcadeMir Charter Schools also has discretion to dismiss a formal complaint as subject to this grievance process if the complainant submits a written request for withdrawal to the Title IX Coordinator, the respondent is no longer enrolled at or employed by the School, or the specific circumstances prevent the School from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination.

Parties are able to appeal dismissal decisions.

What are my rights during this grievance process?

During the grievance process for formal complaints of sexual harassment and complaints including allegations of sexual harassment, parties are guaranteed a number of rights, including:

- Presumption that the respondent is not responsible for the alleged conduct until a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the grievance process.
- Equal opportunity to (i) present witnesses and other evidence, and (ii) inspect and review any evidence obtained as part of the investigation that is directly related to the allegations in the formal complaint.
- Privacy protections for records that are made or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional.

- Protections for information covered by a legally recognized privilege.
- Credibility determinations that are not based upon a person's status as a complainant, respondent, or witness.
- Objective evaluation of all relevant evidence.
- No conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or for or against an individual complainant or respondent.
- The right to an advisor of choice, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney.
- No Retaliation.

How long will the grievance process take?

The grievance process (up to and including an appeals determination, if applicable) will be completed in a reasonably prompt time frame, which the School designates as 90 school days from receipt of the formal complaint.

Temporary delays or limited extensions of time frames may be permitted for good cause with written notice to the complainant and respondent of the delay or extension and the reasons for the action. Good cause may include considerations such as absence of a party, a party's advisor, or a witness; concurrent law enforcement activity; or the need for language assistance or accommodation of disabilities.

What is the standard of evidence for determining responsibility?

The standard of evidence to be used for determining responsibility under this grievance procedure (and for all formal complaints of sexual harassment, including formal complaints against employees and students) is the preponderance of the evidence standard.

What happens during the investigation phase of the grievance process?

Upon receipt of a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will provide the known parties written notice of: the grievance process (including informal resolution), allegations of sexual harassment, and other information required by Title IX and its regulations.

The specific steps of the investigation will vary based on the nature of the allegations and other factors. However, AcadeMir's team's inquiry will be prompt, thorough, and impartial. The burden of gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination regarding responsibility rest on the school and not the parties.

The investigation may include, but is not limited to, the following:

- Interviews of the parties and/or witnesses;
- Requests for written statements from the parties and/or witnesses; and/or
- Review and collection of relevant documentation or information.

Both parties will have an equal opportunity to inspect and review any evidence obtained as part of the investigation that is directly related to the allegations raised in the formal complaint, including evidence upon which the School does not intend to rely in reaching a determination of responsibility.

The investigator will create an investigative report that fairly summarizes the relevant evidence. Prior to completion of the investigative report, the School will send to each party (and their advisor(s), if any) the evidence subject to inspection and review. The parties will have 10 school days to submit a written response, which the investigator will consider prior to completion of the investigative report.

The investigator will send the final investigative report to each party (and advisor(s), if any) for their review and written response at least 10 days prior to providing a copy of the final investigative report to the decision-making panel. The investigative report will be advisory in nature and will not bind the decision-making panel to any particular decision, course of action, or remedial measure.

What happens after the investigative report has been finalized?

After receiving a copy of the investigative report and the parties' written responses (if any), the decision-making panel will give each party the opportunity to submit written, relevant questions that the party wants asked of any other party or witness. The decision-making panel will provide each party with the answers to those questions and will allow for additional, limited follow-up questions from each party.

The decision-making panel will then issue a written determination regarding responsibility in accordance with Title IX and its regulations. The written determination will include, among other things, the findings of fact supporting their determination, the rationale for their determination, and any disciplinary sanctions imposed on the respondent and/or remedies designed to restore or preserve equal access to the Schools's education program or activity for the complainant.

Can I appeal the panel's determination?

Any party can appeal the decision-making panel's determination regarding responsibility within 10 school days of its issuance. Any party may file an appeal by making a written request to the Title IX Coordinator detailing the reason for the appeal.

Parties can appeal on the following bases:

- Procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter;
- New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time of the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made, that could affect the outcome of the matter; or
- The Title IX Coordinator, investigator, or decision-making panel had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or against the individual complainant or respondent that affected the outcome of the matter.

What is the appeal process?

Upon receipt of a timely appeal, the Title IX Coordinator will notify the parties that an appeal has been filed. The Title IX Coordinator will also appoint a reviewer to consider the appeal and notify the parties of the selected reviewer.

The reviewer will notify the parties of the appeal procedures and set a schedule for the parties to submit a written statement in support of, or challenging, the decision-making panel's determination.

Upon reviewing both parties' statements, the reviewer will issue a reasoned written decision describing the result of the appeal and rationale for the result. The reviewer's decision will be final and binding on the parties.

What remedies are available under this grievance procedure?

Remedies under this grievance procedure must be designed to restore or preserve equal access to the education program or activity. For students, the range of possible remedies may include but is not limited to: restorative conversations, safety escorts, or change of classes. For employees, the range of possible remedies may include but is not limited to: restorative conversations, no-contact order, or change of work assignment. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for effective implementation of any remedies.

This grievance procedure may also provide for discipline or recommendations for discipline where a determination of responsibility for sexual harassment has been made against the respondent. For students, the range of possible discipline may extend from verbal counseling up to and including expulsion. For employees, the range of possible discipline may extend from verbal counseling up to and including termination. Recommendations for discipline will be pursued according to applicable AcadeMir policies and procedures.

Is there an option for informal resolution?

At any time after a formal complaint has been filed (but before a determination regarding responsibility), the AcadeMir may offer the parties the opportunity to engage in informal resolution of the formal complaint. However, informal resolution may not be offered or utilized where the allegations involve an employee sexually harassing a student.

The AcadeMir must obtain the parties' voluntary, written consent to the informal resolution process. The Title IX Coordinator must also provide the parties with a written notice as prescribed by Title IX and its regulations.

At any time prior to agreeing to a resolution resulting from an informal resolution process, any party has the right to withdraw from the informal resolution process and resume the grievance process with respect to the formal complaint.

TITLE IX TRAINING

The below training material has been used to train the AcadeMir Charter School's Title IX Coordinator, Investigators, Decision-Makers, and Informal Resolution Facilitators (the AcadeMir Charter Schools "Title IX Personnel") under the August 14, 2020 Title IX regulations.

In compliance with 34 CFR Part 106.45(b)(10), requiring Title IX training materials to be made publicly available, the following materials are available for review:

Recordkeeping

The District's Title IX Coordinator and all individuals responsible for receiving reports, applying formal Complaint procedures, and/or conducting investigations pursuant to this manual shall be responsible for maintaining records related to all Title IX Complaints received by the schools for no less than seven (7) years. These records include but are not limited to, all information, documents, electronically stored, and electronic media created and/or received as part of the report, Complaint, or investigation.

The information shall be retained immediately upon receipt of specific information and/or written notice that could lead to an investigation, formal Complaint, or potential litigation. The information, documents, electronic records, and electronic media retained may include public records and records exempt from disclosure under Federal and/or State law.

Title IX Complain Form

The Purpose of this Title IX Complaint form is to gather the essential basic facts of the alleged actions in order to facilitate prompt and equitable resolutions of complaints of sexual harassment prohibited by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX). This form applies only to complaints alleging sexual harassment and/or retaliation related to sexual harassment, with sexual harassment defined as conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following: quid pro quo; unwelcomed conduct so severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to Academir Charter Schools educational program or activity, sexual assault; dating violence; domestic violence; and/or stalking.

Academir Charter Schools, Inc. does not discriminate on the basis of sex in and educational program or activity that it operates as required by Title IX. Academir Charter Schools, Inc. also does not discriminate on the basis of sex in admissions or employment.

Persons are strongly encouraged to report allegation of sexual harassment to the school's Principal or work site supervisor. However, individuals may also submit their complaint to the Academir Charter Schools Title IX Coordinator. You may submit your complaint via email, fax, google form, or mail using the contact information below.

For additional information about Title or any other discrimination/harassment concerns, contact the U.S. Department of Education Assistant Secretary for Civil Right and/or title IX coordinator for Academir Charter Schools:
